

2009 Y-CEO Heritage Invitational Golf Tournament

WHO: Metro Atlanta area CEOs are invited to participate in a great day of golf and fellowship, while at the same time offering an opportunity to give back to the community.

WHAT: The 2009 Y-CEO Heritage Invitational Golf Tournament is an annual benefit event, providing funding for the YMCA Guy Millner Teen Legacy Fund.

Since its inception in 1985, the tournament has contributed over $5 million to the fund to directly support teen leadership planning programs.

WHEN: The tournament will be held Monday, October 12, 2009

The day begins at 10am with registration and lunch at East Lake Golf Club followed by a shotgun start at noon. The day will include a special event for spouses. Plan to stay for our dinner and awards ceremony. More details to be announced.

WHERE: East Lake Golf Club

The event will be held at the prestigious East Lake Golf Club in southeast Atlanta. Opened in 1906, this beautiful course was home to such golf legends as Bobby Jones. East Lake is the new home of the PGA's Tour Championship and was also the host of the 101st U.S. Amateur Championship in 2001.

DONATION: Players have two options:
1) $4,000 will allow you to play.
2) $6,000 will allow you and another executive from your organization to play.

Your generous donation to the Metro Atlanta YMCA will be used to provide outreach programs for at-risk metro Atlanta youth.

CONTACT: For additional information or questions:
Jennifer Reeves
(404)267-5359
jenniferr@ymcaatlanta.org