Nedra R. Jones, CPA, CGMA

Vice President of Finance and Risk

Nedra Jones joined the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta in 2010 as its Controller and was promoted to the Vice President of Finance and Risk in 2016. In her current role, she is responsible for the accounting, financial reporting, payroll, internal audit, compliance, treasury, risk management and budget functions.

Nedra grew up in New Bern, North Carolina and graduated Summa Cum Laude from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University (A&T) with a bachelor's degree in Accounting. Immediately after graduating from A&T, Nedra joined the Atlanta office of Deloitte & Touche where she rose to the level of Senior Auditor and earned her CPA designation.

In addition to her stint at Deloitte, during her 20-year career Nedra has held various accounting and finance leadership positions for Fortune 500 companies and large non-profit organizations including: First Data Corporation Manager of External Reporting; AT&T Manager of Accounting Policy and Compliance; Black Entertainment Television (BET) Division Controller; and Clark Atlanta University Controller and Interim CFO.

Nedra is a past member of the National Association of Black Accountants and is currently a member of the Georgia Society of CPA's and the AICPA. She is a 2013 graduate of Leadership DeKalb.

Community involvement is very important to Nedra as well. She has served as a volunteer for the National Black Child Development Institute, Mission Atlanta and Habitat for Humanity. She previously served on the Advisory Board of the Cam Newton Foundation and the Board of Directors of It's the Journey, Inc (the Atlanta 2-Day Walk for Breast Cancer). She was on the Finance Committees of both organizations.

Nedra is married to Dr. William Jones. They live in Stone Mountain and have five children and one grandchild.
